Arrangements have been practically completed for the second annual parade and field day of the city, to be held on Saturday afternoon and evening under the auspices of the Thread City Centennial association. About twenty entries have been received to date from corps in Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island.
The thirty-five prizes, comprising gold and silver cups and medals are on exhibition in a local store window.
The parade is scheduled to start at 1 o'clock, forming on Valley street, marching to Jackson to Union to Main, up Main to Bridge counter on Main street to Recreation park where the contests are to be held. A dance will be held in the state armory in the evening. Headquarters for the day will be in the rooms of the chamber of commerce on Main street.

The funeral of Mrs. Augusta C.

bert, both of South Windham were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the parsonage of the Congregational church at Windham Center by the pastor, Rev. Arthur W. Clifford.
Edward Johnson of Ivoryton, a brother of the groom, was best man and Miss May Colbert, a sister of the bride was bridesmaid. Following the ceremony a reception was held and a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Colbert of South Windham. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left Wednesday evening on a honeymoon trip. On their return they will continue to reside in South Windham where the groom is employed in the office of the Smith-Winchester Manufacturing Co.

The members of the Willimantic Woman's club held the final meeting of the season at their rooms Tuesday afternoon.

Beautiful Women

WINDHAM

At the Sunday morning service in the Congregational church Rev. Arthur Clifford preached a Memorial day sermon.
The choir anthem was Kipling's Recessional, De Koven. A solo, Fear Ye Not, O Israel, beautifully rendered by Miss Norma Goddard, soloist at the Unitarian church in Brookline, Mass., was greatly appreciated.

the play How the Story Grew, well presented by eight young ladies in old-fashioned costumes. The scenes were very amusing. Those taking part were Miss Paul Hopkins, Misses Helen and Inez Hopkins, Lucie Sherman, Marguerite Cook, Charlotte Lathrop, Polly Eixley and Christie Pearl. Cake and ice cream were served. Preceding the play there was vocal and instrumental music by Mrs. Pe-gum. The success of the entertainment was largely due to Miss Helen Hopkins, chairman of the social committee of the C. E. society, who was in charge. The

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Broad Theatre

"The Fall of Babylon" is the latest addition to the D. W. Griffith cycle of ap-er-species thespianism. Its four scenes in "The Birth of a Nation," "Intolerance" and "Hearts of the World." Interest in "The Fall of Babylon" is especially keen locally because of the announcement that it has been secured for a special engagement here at the Broad theatre, today, Friday, and Saturday. In this most recent of his big spectacular productions Mr. Griffith turns from the smoke of battle in "Hearts of the World" to the highly cheerful splendor of the days of Babylon. The dancing girls, the bacchanalian feasts, the walls three hundred feet high, the sensational chariot races, Ishtar's temple, etc. In accord with his former policy, Mr. Griffith has assembled for "The Fall of Babylon" a distinguished company of players, among the principals: Constance Talmadge, Geo.
Fawcett, Mildred Harris, Tully Marshall, Pauline Stark, Seena Owen, Alma Rib-bins, Kate Bruce, Alfred Paget, Eliza-Lincoln. A special musical score, added materially to the enjoyment of the spectacle. Other pictures on the bill include the Pathe news and a sunshine comedy.

Strand Theatre

The Strand will open another big program today. The Dixie Four who has just completed the Poli and Keith circuit will feature the bill with excellent harmony singing. They are very good and I'm sure you will appreciate their talent. Garsonia, the singing comedienne who has a wonderful voice and a new line of gags and jokes will appear second on the bill. Kelly and Pollock will entertain you with their original comedy act. Something new. Ernest, the acrobat, will endeavor to perform some, out of the ordinary, new stunts. Last but not least come the Tooney Bros., with a little of each of the following singing, their own special musical score, talking and dancing. Monroe Salisbury in the "Blinding Trail," a story of the woods and of a millionaire lumber camp. A Kino gram weekly will close the extraordinary show for Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

DAVIS THEATRE

For the last half of this week the Davis will offer a show of big time vaudeville and feature pictures that will be hard to forget. Every act is a recognized standard attraction, and will provide an entertainment that will please both young and old. Heading the bill is the Four Orions who present a sensational new novelty that is entirely different from other wire acts. The second act is Van and Vernon. "The Peach and the Steep." This is a clever comedy act and is full of fun from start to finish.
The third act, Daniels and Walters, have a vaudeville novelty entitled "The Old Timer." This is a pretty comedy musical offering. The fourth act is Cook and Smith. A Chinaman and the public a team of colored comedians who can produce laughs without any effort. The fifth and last act is Jean Bordell, an eccentric comedienne, who is a mere girl.
Miss Bordell has been before the public a comparatively short time but her work is that of a finished artist and combined with it is a fascinating personality. The feature picture is "Wing of the Morning," 6-part special production adapted from the famous play by Louis Tracy—International News and a funny Mutt & Jeff comedy completes the show.
